SIX FAIR ENTRIES - SIX BLUE RIBBONS!

Celebrity Corner

"Jesus" poses with the "angels" during a break in Easter morning rehearsal (which started at 6am!) Moriah also had cameos as a slave in Pilate's courtyard and a villager in the Palm Sunday procession (carrying Daniel, the tiny Jewish boy!)

It was the Newhouse girls' best year ever at the fair and Joshua's first time to enjoy the animals, exhibits and other fun. He did NOT like any of the rides, but loved climbing on the tractors and petting the animals (see pictures on page 3).

Family for Easter

Mark's two sisters came to Tucson from New Jersey and Prescott Valley, AZ for the holiday. Everyone, including Grandma and Grandpa Newhouse, attended Christ Community to see the dramatic presentation put on by the choir and orchestra (pictured to the left are cousins Abbi Timm, Bethany, and Bella Triolo). Kim played bass for the early rehearsal and two services so Jordan was in charge of putting the lunch spread together with the assistance of Mema and Papa (Kim's parents). Even Great Grandpa Holsinger came for lunch so the entire Newhouse side was there except for nephew Kyle who had just left for Navy boot camp.

We had egg salad, turkey, fruit, vegies, and chocolate cupcakes for Joshua's birthday. It warmed up enough to go out and enjoy our play and garden areas. Here Elizabeth, Jordan, and Daniel are observing the caterpillars living in the fennel plant!

On the 2nd day in April, Papa, Mema, Jordan and I went to a traveling exhibit about the Titanic. There were real artifacts that they found at the site and lots and lots of history. Before you go through the exhibit they give you a boarding pass so that you are a person that went on the Titanic then you get your picture with the captain at the "grand stair case". After touring many interesting rooms, you find out if you were "lost" or "saved"...my husband and all of Mema's family drowned :(

After the Titanic tour we went to meet someone, I had no clue who it was and I didn't know the surprise that was awaiting me! We drove up to a lady with a cage with a dachshund in it. I jumped out just as fast as Mema did to meet the puppy. Earlier Mema had told me that the next dog they get would be half mine, and the next thing I knew was that Mema was buying the puppy except she was $50 short and guess how much money I had in my purse?

Mema said I could name him, but I could not think of anything good or that fit. Mom suggested something to do with the Titanic or his color and it finally came to me as I looked at pictures of the ship at the bottom of the sea: RUSTY! Mema was reading a book that day with a character named Rusty...she thought that would be a good name and was amazed when I called her with that very same idea!

Sew.... What's Up?

By Jordan Newhouse

My friend Lisa was looking for a dress to wear to her graduation/18th birthday party. She came up empty at all the stores she tried, so she decided to commission me to make her a special, one-of-a-kind dress. I had made her and three other friends ballet tunics for a performance, so Lisa was familiar with my work.

When we started the design process she told me that she didn't want the dress to be blue. All the other clothes in her closet are blue and she wanted something different. Well, after "trying on" almost all the other pastel fabrics in Joann's, we decided that blue is just her color!

The pattern is Simplicity 2926, and for the most part I was happy working with it. I made quite a few changes to the construction, lining the whole dress and omitting facings. The trim is white piping.

ONE DAY ZOO THE NEXT DAY FAIR

Both had animals full of energy!

Cute Cwip

Moriah and Bethany were talking about horse milk (no we don't drink
it) When Daniel spoke up, "You can't drink horse milk, they don't have milk horns!!!"

Both places had things to climb on

Step into Africa was an eye opener for AIDS and how you can help and how others are helping. It is a walk through exhibit as if you are the child; at some points they have you sit down on what looks like their bed and what it would have felt like. I would encourage you to go to this exhibit if there is one near you and if there isn't you can take the journey at the website

Much fun at the Zoo
Now the day is done... but wait...
Wake up - time for Fair!

Can you spot the differences?

Jordan's Birthday Gift for Daddy

Blessed is every one who fears the Lord,
Who walks in His ways.
When you eat the labor of your hands,
You shall be happy, and it shall be well with you.
Your wife shall be as a fruitful vine
In the very heart of your house,
Your children like olive plants
All around your table.

Behold, thus shall the man be blessed
Who fears the Lord.

The Lord bless you...

Yes, may you see your Children's children.
